

Travel Reimbursement Policy - Booking

Company Policy Document | Page 1

The Travel Policy defines reimbursement rules for business travel. All business travel must be pre-approved by the department head.

Flight Reimbursement: For all domestic and international business flights, flight reimbursement is limited to economy class only. Business class or premium economy bookings will not be reimbursed unless specifically approved by the CFO.

Hotel Cap Limit: The maximum hotel cap per night is Rs 3000/night for tier 1 cities (such as Mumbai, Delhi, and Bangalore). For other cities, the limit is Rs 2000/night. Hotel bookings exceeding these limits must have written justification.

Travel Reimbursement Policy - Claims

Company Policy Document | Page 2

Daily Food Allowance: Employees are entitled to a daily food allowance of Rs 500 during official outstation travel. This is a flat rate to cover lunch and dinner.

Submission Limit: Employees must submit claims within 30 days of travel completion. Claims submitted after 30 days will be rejected automatically.

Receipts Mandate: Submission of original bills and receipts is mandatory for amounts above Rs 200. For expenses under Rs 200, self-declaration is acceptable.